

Maryland Schools Eligible to Elect the Community Eligibility Provision 2015-2016 School Year

- Community eligibility allows high-poverty schools to provide breakfast and lunch to all students at no charge.
- The following charts list the schools, by county, that may be eligible to use community eligibility to become Hunger-Free Schools.
- Schools are reimbursed by the federal government for meals served. The “CEP School %” listed below is the percentage of meals served that will be reimbursed by the federal government at the highest “free meal” rate. The remaining percentage of meals will still be reimbursed by the federal government, but at a lower rate.
- Interested schools should contact their Food and Nutrition Services Department to enroll.

ALLEGANY COUNTY
*Allegany County is eligible to elect community eligibility district-wide. With community eligibility, Allegany County could serve free breakfast and lunch to all 8,873 students in all 24 county schools.
