

FOOD FOR FAMILIES

Community Resource Fair

This event is in recognition of National Hunger Awareness Month.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

Saturday, September 11, 2010

12:00 – 3:00 pm

Benjamin Franklin High School

@ Masonville Cove

1201 Cambria Street, Baltimore, MD 21225

Enter at West Bay and Washburn Avenues

- ✓ FREE produce from the Maryland Food Bank
- ✓ FREE Health & Nutrition Resources
- ✓ ONE-STOP opportunity to meet privately with local agencies to receive Food Stamps
- ✓ Fun games and prizes!

The Coalition for a Healthy Maryland is proud to partner with the University of Maryland School of Social Work – Social Work Community Outreach Service (SWCOS) & the Partnership to End Childhood Hunger in Maryland to bring valuable services and resources into the community. Through our efforts we hope to raise awareness about the issues of hunger and promote healthy eating!

Sponsored by the Coalition for a Healthy Maryland (CHM): Baltimore City Department of Social Services, Capital Area Food Bank, Maryland Department of Human Resources (MD DHR), Maryland Food Bank, Maryland Hunger Solutions, Seedco, SHARE Food Network, and U.S Department of Agriculture.

*Location Space Donated by Benjamin Franklin High School @ Masonville Cove & Emmanuel Wesleyan Church.